Gifts That Bless

December 2014

During this Christmas season, our hearts and thoughts turn to the hundreds of children, men and women that have been blessed in so many ways by your gifts throughout 2014.

Every dollar that you have entrusted to Global Outreach has been used to respond to many and varied needs of our brothers and sisters in war-torn and developing nations. Your gifts have also provided for evangelistic outreach to those who desperately need to hear the good news of the love of Christ for them. With grateful hearts and thanks to each of you, we would like to share pictures of a few of the ways your gifts have blessed others around the globe this year.

So many of you gave generously and worked hard to finance the construction of a beautiful new school including six classrooms, bathrooms, and a school office. Nearly 300 students are receiving a quality education and learning about Jesus at Mango Tree School in Uvira, Congo, DRC.

New cots and blankets have been purchased for elderly widows who will now be able to sleep inside several local churches. Years ago the ministry to widows was named "Harle's Haven" in honor of Harle Eliason, Global Outreach founder.

Please see page 2 for a special opportunity to bless our orphans for Christmas. Your generosity will provide a small gift or a special treat for Christmas dinner for over 400 orphans.

The 57 orphans at Congo for Christ were sleeping on the floor and in dire need of new bunk beds. Global Outreach volunteers, Ashleigh and Jason Fields asked their family and friends to give donations to purchase the beds in lieu of wedding gifts. These children will be safer and more comfortable because of this gift.

The teen girls in India are learning a new skill by sewing new school uniforms to be given to the nearly 250 orphans in 13 orphanages supported by Global Outreach

A special designated gift is providing breakfast three days a week for the orphans at Congo for Christ. This is a real treat!

Relief for victims of fire in India. Your generous gifts provided blankets, clothing, and rebuilt houses for two pastors.

These are just a few of the ways your gifts have been an answer to prayer for so many during the past year. In addition, the provision of food, shelter, clothing, education, medical care, and numerous other items have also blessed hundreds of people in dire need. When you give to Global Outreach, you can rest assured that every donation is stretched to provide the maximum benefit to the most people. Your gifts are changing hearts and lives for now and eternity! We can never thank you enough for partnering with us and trusting us to deliver your gifts to the truly needy of this world. Your ongoing investment of prayers and financial support make this service to God's people possible.

Dekaba and Dekyungu are thankful for new glasses.

This year we have set up a link for online donations that will go directly to provide a small gift for the orphans we support. We would also like to provide a special meal for them on Christmas. The children normally have a very limited diet of mainly rice, beans and what they are able to grow, so a little piece of meat can turn a Christmas dinner into a feast. Please visit our website at www.global-outreach.net and click on the link for donations. There you will see a Razoo Fundraiser for the Orphan Christmas Gift. Thank you!
