Youth Camp in Thailand

August 2010

Sixty young people from four churches in northern Thailand were privileged to participate in youth camp in Samoeng village. Reverend Wanchai Supuwas who pastors the Samoeng church was the director of the camp. The camp included Bible Studies in the morning and afternoon sessions and revival meetings each evening. There was also time for games, relaxation and fellowship. Twelve of the campers accepted Christ and were baptized.

In addition to the regular camp activities, thirteen church leaders attended training classes and are eager for future training sessions. Reverend Wanchai explained that the purpose of these classes is to develop more leaders who will carry on the pastoral work since most of the churches have no pastors.

Global Outreach began supporting Reverend Wanchai in 1986 and provided the funding for Samoeng Girls Home which has thirteen girls this year. The Samoeng Church is on the same campus as the girls home. It is a joy to know that your contributions allow Global Outreach to continue to invest in these young people's lives in Thailand.

Sandya

Sandya was born into a Hindu family and raised by a very poor single mother. Her mother was forced into a life of prostitution in order to support Sandya and pay for her to attend public school. As Sandya became a teenager and understood how her mother earned an income, she also resorted to prostitution as a means of earning money. One night as she was with a man in his hotel, the police came and arrested both her and the man. She was so ashamed that shortly after she was released from jail she tried to commit suicide by poisoning herself. Her mother found her and took her to the hospital. Pastor Jacob was visiting the hospital to pray for the sick and found her. After hearing her story, Pastor Jacob witnessed to her and encouraged her to live for Christ. She accepted his invitation and became a new believer in Christ. She was invited to join the other teen girls at the Feed My People orphanage in Tenali and attend vocational training. She is now in her second year of nurses training and is also growing in her Christian walk.

Please accept our apologies for the mix up with the mail last month at our post office box in Prescott. We learned that several of the donation envelopes were returned to the senders. We have spoken with the post office and they have corrected the mistake and assure us there will be no further problems. Thank you for your gifts to this ministry and for your patience and understanding in this matter.

IN MEMORIAM

in loving memory of:
